

The Snorri Sturluson Research Centre in Reykholt

Renaissance Itineraries: Tracing Spaces & Places in the Early Modern World

The Fifth Conference of the Nordic Network for Renaissance Studies
28-30 September 2022

Program:

Wednesday 28 September

17:00 Departure from BSÍ – Reykjavík Bus Terminal

18.30–19.00: Arrival in Reykholt

19.00–21.00: Dinner

Thursday 29 September

07.00: Breakfast

7.45: Registration

8.00: The Conference Hall

Welcome by Bergur Þorgeirsson, Director of The Snorri Sturluson Research Centre
Welcom by Marianne Pade, Chair of The Nordic Network for Renaissance Studies
Short welcome and practical information by Gottskálk Jensson

8.30: The Conference Hall

Professor emeritus Helgi Þorláksson: Reykholt in the Time of Snorri Sturluson

9.15–10.45: Papers

Conference Hall	Library	Bishop's Room	Church
Iter septentrionale: When Renaissance humanism went north I Chair: Peter Zeeberg	Book itineraries Chair: Outi Merisalo	Metropolitan Itineraries: Social and Textual Mobility in Early Modern London.	Spiritual, Emotional, and Political Itineraries: Female Dialogues in Renaissance Italy I Chair: Gottskálk Jensson
Marianne Pade: Humanism and Philology	Susanna Niiranen (Zoom): Building 'Western' identity in East Central and Northern Europe.	Part 1: Moving in and around the London Stage Chair: Per Sivefors	Unn Falkeid: Justified Anger: The Body Politics of Margherita Datini (1360–1423)
Anders Borggaard: Paternal Princes in Lutheran Northern Europe	Sigismund II Augustus' library	Elisabeth Lutteman: Borrowed Sounds of the City: Trajectories of an Early Modern English Stage Song	Eleonora Capuccilli: Pastoral Missions and Invisible Travels: The Prophetic Itinerary of Caterina da Racconigi
Johann Rammingner: Measuring Scandinavian Latin	Benjamin Wallura (Zoom): Travelling to and through the Surface: Early Modern Vulcanology and Geology at the University of Helmstedt and the Ducal Libraries of Brunswick-Wolfenbüttel in the	Kiki Lindell Tersmeden: "With a hey, ho, the wind and the rain": Itinerant Actors, Outdoor Conditions, and Learning	Eleonora Carinci: From Cloistered Spaces to Secular Places:

	Seventeenth Cent. Bernd Roling (Zoom): Archives against myths: Johann Heinrich Jung and the Dukes of Bentheim	from the Inside Metropolitan Itineraries. Part 2: Social Itineraries and Mobile Interaction in the Metropolis Chair: Raja Sarasti- Wilenius Anna Swärdh: 'Lunden' in 'ängaland': Early Modern Swedish Experiences of London	Relationships and Movements in Felice Rasponi's Autobiographical Dialogue
--	--	--	---

10.45–11.15: Coffee Break

11.15–12.45: Papers

Conference Hall	Library	Bishop's Room	Church
Iter septentrionale (cont.) Chair: Marianne Pade Trine Arlund Hass: Terms of debate Johannes Isacius Pontanus' Northern Antiquarianism Chair: Marianne Pade Giovanni Grandi: Pontanus on Curtius Rufus: Antiquarian Philology and Mistakes across Renaissance Europe Damiano Acciarino: Pontanus and Mythology: The Case of Trigla	Spiritual, Emotional, and Political Itineraries II. Chair: Eleonora Capuccilli Clara Stella (Zoom): Authorship and Exile within the Voice of Olympia Fulvia Morata Outlooks from Iceland on the Early Modern World Chair: Bjørn Bandlien Lorenz Hindrichsen: Reading Artefacts as Meta-Commentaries on Global Encounters at Pingeyrar Church, Iceland (1470-1700) Þórunn Sigurðardóttir: Disaster at Home and Abroad: The Literary Travels of an Icelandic Poet	Metropolitan Itineraries. Part 2: Social Itineraries and Mobile Interaction in the Metropolis Chair: Raja Sarasti- Wilenius Per Sivefors: Satirical Itineraries: The Elizabethan Road to Success – or Elsewhere Independent papers: Miryana Dimitrova: Englishmen and Turks Journeying on the Wings of the Ancients: The Image of Alexander the Great as a Meeting Point of Eastern and Western Mindsets in Thomas Goffe's Play The Courageous Turk Dustin M. Neighbors: The Huntress' Movements: Women and the Itinerant Nature of Hunting in Early Modern Scandinavia	Expanding Horizons Chair: Gottskålk Jenson Mikkel-Theis Paulsen: Tragicomic Visions of Conquest in Early Modern Spain & England Randi Lisa Davenport: Gendered Itineraries: Female Characters' Movements in the Trials of Persiles and Sigismunda, A Northern Story (1617) by Miguel de Cervantes Christian Dahl og Anne Fastrup: Involuntary Travels to Foreign Worlds

12.45–14.00: Lunch

14.00–16.00: Papers

Conference Hall	Library	Bishop Room	Church
The North and the South Chair: Dustin M. Neighbors Astrid Nilsson:	Libraries, Books, Texts, Language on the Move Chair: Outi Merisalo Peter Sjökvist:	Gazing into the Beyond Chair: Unn Falkeid Unn Irene Aasdalen: Philosophical Itineraries:	Renaissance Art and Museology I Chair: Christian Dahl Maria Fabricius Hansen:

Northern Itineraries: Johannes, Olaus, and the Carta Marina (1539) Peter Zeeberg: From Hven to Prague – Tycho Brahe’s Last Journey Gottskálk Jenson: Boreal Authorities: The Icelandic Humanists’ Program of Scandinavian and North-Atlantic History Raja Sarasti-Wilenius: Between Scylla and Charybdis. Swedish Treatises on Peregrination (17th and 18th Centuries)	Travelling Books – Literary Spoils of War from Poland in Sweden, and Beyond Grigory Vorobyev: Aristotle’s Journey from Italy to England: A Traveling Scribe and his Book Thorbjørn Nordbø: Machiavelli – Secretary Itinerant Patrizia Carmassi: Itineraries through Libraries: Philologists and their Search for Ancient Manuscripts in 17th-Century Europe	Giovanni Pico on the Soul’s Decent Joseph William Sterrett: ‘I saw Eternity the Other Night’: Metaphysical Images of the Infinite Else Marie Lingaas: Orpheus’ Journey to the Underworld – a Renaissance Dilemma	Travelling Imagery: Cultural exchange and temporal eclecticism in the Bolognese frescoes of Amico Aspertini Peter Gillgren: Marcus Aurelius on the Capitoline Hill Hanne Kolind Poulsen: Melchior Lorck’s Pictures og ‘the Other’ Independent paper: Bjørn Bandlien: Shaping Royal Identities by Crossing the Sea: The Case of King James of Scotland and Queen Anna of Denmark
---	--	---	---

16.00–16:30: Coffee Break

19.00–20.00: Reception Sponsored by the Neo-Latin Association of Denmark (in the Show Room under the Church). Bergur Þorgeirsson: An introduction to the SSRC (Snorrastofa).

20.00–22.00 : Conference Dinner at Fosshótel Dining Hall

Friday 30 September

07.00: Breakfast

09.00–10:00: Business Meeting of the Nordic Network for Renaissance Studies (Library)

10.00–10:30: Coffee Break

11.00: Checkout from Hotel

11.30–12:20: Lunch

12.30: Departure from Reykholt to the waterfall Hraunfossar and the national park Pingvellir, the site of the Icelandic parliament from 930 to 1798.

17.00: Arrival in Reykjavík

17.00-18.00: Visit to the Arnarnagæan Institute for Icelandic Studies: Manuscript Presentation

The conference is funded by The Snorri Sturluson Centre in Reykholt, The School of Humanities, University of Iceland, and the Árni Magnússon Institute for Icelandic Studies